MEMBERSHIP & INFORMATION

WHO WE ARE

Established in 1955, the Libertyville Historical Society is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization that collects and preserves historical material and information relative to Libertyville and the surrounding area in Lake County, Illinois. The 1878 Ansel B. Cook Home, listed on the National Register of Historic Places, is home to the Society's archives and museum.

COLLECTIONS

The Libertyville Historical Society collection falls into two categories:

- Objects in good condition for display in the Ansel B. Cook Home typical to a family home during the time of the Cook family's residence, approximately 1870-1920. Preference given to items with a local historical connection.
- Objects, papers, photographs and postcards in good condition with Libertyville or surrounding area historical significance regardless of time period.
